

Reading Supplementary Regulations

|-----------------|------------------|---|
| March 4, 1991 | Membership | Anyone employed by the Town of Reading or the Reading Housing Authority on or after July 1, 1991, as a part-time, provisional, part-time temporary, temporary provisional, seasonal or intermittent employee, shall not be eligible to the Reading Retirement System. |
| July 25, 1994 | Personnel Policy | Adopt personnel policies for their staff members that are equal to the benefits of the Town of Reading employees. |
| March 7, 1996 | Buy-Backs | The Retirement Board will not allows members to buy back for past time worked for the Town since July 1, 1991 when the town was required to withhold and match social security deductions. By allowing buybacks the Board would, in essence, be requiring the Town to fund two retirements for the same period of employment. If however, a part-time worker had not contributed to social security, but opted for the ICMA deferral instead, the employee will be allowed to buy back time, as the Town does not match those deductions. |
| March 22, 1997 | Election Rules | A 45-day election schedule for upcoming Reading Retirement Board election. The retirement board must provide members with “reasonable notice of the election not less than ninety (90) days prior to the date of the election”. |
| August 17, 2004 | | As of [the date of approval], anyone employed by the Town of Reading or the Reading Housing Authority, whose combined total service equals or exceeds 1,690 hours per year shall be enrolled in the Reading Retirement System. |
